Special Education Law
November 24, 2008

Course Chair:
Robert G. Keel
Keel Cottrelle LLP

Top practitioners and education professionals will give you a practical, up-to-date understanding of the complex - and often problematic - legal issues in this area, along with strategies for effectively managing them. Topics include:

- Current legal principles and statutory requirements applicable to special education students
- Practical impact of the Charter and Ontario Human Rights Code on special education
- Managing human rights applications
- Dealing with special education issues in the school and classroom setting
- Strategies for managing current challenges: handling medication issues such as blood glucose testing, administration of injections; companion dogs; and IBI in the classroom
- How appeal and judicial review processes affect special education matters

Facilitation Skills for Education Professionals
November 25, 2008

Workshop Leaders:

Professor D. Paul Emond, OHLS
Robert G. Keel, Keel Cottrelle LLP

No matter what your role in education, you unquestionably spend a great deal of time managing conflicts and resolving disputes. More than ever before, the Ministry of Education is encouraging educators to get the skills they need to prevent conflict, resolve disputes quickly and allow students to develop their full potential and succeed in school. The Ministry's recent Shared Solutions project exemplifies the pressures educators are facing to ensure they have the necessary skills, together with parents and students, to be able to work through and resolve conflict.

In this interactive workshop, custom designed for educators, you will work with peers and top practitioners to get the skills you need to succeed.
