

CPCO/OCSOA Speaker Series 2010

CPCO in partnership with OCSOA hosts one-day workshops with internationally renowned speakers. The purpose of these sessions is to provide educational leaders with current research and information from qualified speakers who are recognized for their work in the field.

These shared learning opportunities support Catholic school and system leaders in the implementation and development of various aspect of the Ontario Leadership Strategy and in the Equity and Inclusive Education Policy. The opportunity for networking with colleagues across the province strengthens Catholic education.

Leading Change

Robert Kegan

Friday, April 9, 2010 | Marriott Eaton Centre, Toronto

Robert Kegan is a psychologist who teaches, researches, writes, and consults about adult development, adult learning, and professional development. He is the co-director of the Change Leadership Group, is the Meehan Professor of Adult Learning and Professional Development at the Harvard Graduate School of Education. Kegan is the co-author of How the Way We Talk Can Change the Way We Work (2001), and Change Leadership: A Practical Guide to Transforming Our Schools (2006), and Immunity to Change: How to Overcome it and Unlock Potential in Yourself and your Organization.

Succession Planning and Talent Development Transforming Mission Into Action

Patrick Duignan

Wednesday, May 19, 2010 | Westin Harbor Castle Hotel, Toronto

Patrick Duignan is a professor emeritus from the Australian Catholic University. He is a renowned scholar and author who has worked extensively with school, system and other organizations to support leaders in moving their articulated mission, vision and values into practice. In an interactive workshop, Duignan will assist Catholic school and system leaders to integrate succession planning and talent development into their strategic plans and move them forward into action.