Watch for the LNS Mailing Package coming to your school end of November!

.....RESOURCES @ LNS

The Literacy and Numeracy Secretariat sends a mailing package twice a year to the Ontario publicly funded school system. This package contains resources to help teachers support their students in making connections, thinking more deeply and achieving a solid foundation in reading, writing and mathematics.

LNS resources are a great way to keep you up to date in your professional reading! They will introduce you to what research says about effective practice and provide you with the latest teaching tips.

Why not link to LNS resources from your school website and spread the word about promising evidence-based practices?

What Works?: Research into Practice
