The Complete Guide to School Law for K-12 Education Professionals

Do you understand your legal obligations and risks well enough to make efficient, sound and confident decisions?

"Excellent! I would love to see this training offered to all school administrators!" (2008)

Today's education environment is more demanding than ever. The Ontario school system and its governing legal framework are sprawling, diverse and constantly evolving - impacting the roles and responsibilities of education professionals. As an educator, school administrator, supervisory officer, board official, trustee or lawyer, it is imperative that you have a clear understanding of the law that governs the education system in Ontario. Failure to understand or keep current in this area can have serious and potentially costly ramifications.

Using case studies and real life examples, this Osgoode Professional Development program, School Law for K-12 Education Professionals will guide you through the education law labyrinth and provide you with an understanding of the most pertinent legal issues that continually plague educational leaders and their legal advisors. The program will help you identify when a situation may have legal repercussions and arm you with the tools you need to act accordingly.

The program provides educational professionals with a unique opportunity to learn and apply the law, while obtaining practical tips and insights from top practitioners and educational leaders who tackle these issues on a daily basis. You'll take away information that can be readily implemented in your school, board, law firm or other educational institution and receive written materials that will act as a valuable resource long after the course is over.

This program is essential for those involved in the education system and their legal advisors. Space is limited - register now by visiting www.osgoodepd.ca, call 416.597.9725 or 1.888.923.3394, email opd-registration@osgoode.yorku.ca or fax 416.597.9736.

3:15 Ontario Equity and Inclusive Education Strategy: What You Need to Know

Kurt McIntosh, Central Supervising Principal for Equity
Toronto District School Board

Sandy Yep, Director of Education and Training
Canadian Race Relations Foundation

Ontario is taking important steps forward to promote equity, reduce discrimination and embrace diversity in schools to improve overall student achievement and reduce achievement gaps. The Ontario Equity and Inclusive Education Strategy – launched in April 2009 – ensures that all members of the school community are treated with respect and dignity, and helps educators better identify and remove discriminatory biases and systemic barriers to student achievement.

Included in the strategy document is a four-year plan that mandates all of Ontario's school boards to develop and/or revise policies on equity and inclusive education for implementation by September 2010.

This session is your chance to hear how this will impact your roles and obligations, what you need to know to be prepared and strategies for implementation.
