

.....RESOURCES @ LNS

Watch for the LNS Spring 2010 Resource Package coming to your school by the end of April!

The Literacy and Numeracy Secretariat sends a mailing package twice a year to the Ontario publicly funded school system. The package contains samples of resources designed to support improved student learning and achievement, K to 8.

LNS resources are also available online. Why not link to LNS from your school or board website and spread the word about promising evidence-based practices?

What Works?: Research into Practice

Research summaries written by university researchers to help bridge the theory-practice gap. Two new issues – “Bolstering Resilience in Students” and “Science and Literacy in the Elementary Classroom.” Download What Works research summaries in PDF or order from ServiceOntario.

Capacity Building Series

Summaries of such promising evidence-based practices as word recognition strategies for ELLs and non-fiction writing for junior students. One new issue – “Reading Fluency: Building Capacity for Comprehension.” Download Capacity Building monographs in PDF or order from ServiceOntario.

Webcasts for Educators

Video clips of expert practitioners putting “best ideas” into practice in Ontario classrooms. Two new webcasts – “Teaching-Learning Critical Pathways: Hubs and Networks” and “Student-led Conferences.” View webcasts online or order DVDs from ServiceOntario.

New Leader

Brief practical articles by Ontario educators highlighting what is working well in their schools and boards. New articles posted monthly.

Character Development in Ontario: Successful Practices K – 12

The successful practices on the Ministry website feature initiatives that empower students to think critically, feel deeply and act wisely – character development at its best.
